

Embrace Fall River

Fall River is more than the home of Lizzie Borden and the USS Massachusetts Battleship. With its European vibe, the city offers unique cuisines, waterfront attractions, acres of untouched forests, a burgeoning art scene and so much more! Flip these pages to discover the true Fall River.

Explore Now >

Fall River is a fusion of old-world European charm and urban vibrancy right here in Massachusetts.

Welcome >

Viva
FALL RIVER

MA MASSACHUSETTS
visitma.com

SE MASS
visitors bureau
all here & all near

Discover

ST. ANNE'S
SHRINE

Soar across
Fall River with me...

Discover the Unexpected!

Get ready for a memorable experience in this vibrant city that is brimming with a unique Portuguese flair. Whether you are interested in unique culinary experiences, history, outdoor adventure, or simply exploring new places, Fall River is a must-stop destination.

- A diverse, authentic array of multicultural dining options
- Acres of lush forests & green spaces
- A wide range of land and water-based recreational activities available
- Museums & historic locations that unveil a remarkable heritage
- A scenic waterfront with miles (and monuments) to discover

Get ready to embark on an unforgettable adventure of exploration and discovery in Fall River.

Planning your stay?

Go to www.vivafallriver.com/visit to learn more.

Attractions

WORLD WAR II
MEMORIAL

Must-See Historic Destinations

Are you ready to immerse yourself in the stunning sights and sounds of Fall River?

From historic landmarks and iconic monuments to legendary residences and charming neighborhoods brimming with Victorian architecture, visitors can experience the city's history in diverse and engaging ways. Fall River has something for everyone.

- Lafayette-Durfee House– Fall River's only restored colonial house open for public tours
- Battleship Cove– Ship tours, Maritime Museum, & carousel rides (open seasonally)
- Lizzie Borden Museum and Bed & Breakfast– A true-crime enthusiast's dream
- A replica of the Vietnam Veteran's Memorial Wall at Veteran's Memorial Bicentennial Park
- The Fall River Historical Society– The largest collection of Lizzie Borden artifacts & memorabilia

Did You Know?

Battleship Cove is home to the largest collection of World War II naval vessels in the world!

Recreation

Natural Wonderlands For Explorers At Heart

Fall River is a unique combination of urban spaces and untouched natural beauty.

While it may seem like an urban city at first glance, Fall River is actually home to hundreds of acres of hidden forests abundant with natural wildlife. Discover new trails and paths available for biking, hiking, jogging, walking and even birdwatching!

More interested in urban recreation?

There are plenty of places to play tennis, basketball, frisbee and so much more.

- Copicut Woods– 515 acres of trails to bike, hike, & walk amidst a natural backdrop
- Pickleball & tennis courts at city parks– Great for a quick game
- Quequechan River Rail Trail– Suitable for walking & biking along waterway
- Kennedy Park– One of Fall River's 3 parks designed by Frederick Law Olmstead
- Aquatic activities– Public boat slips & fishing areas

KENNEDY PARK

Fall River has a mini replica of the statue of liberty. Can you find it? Hint: Start in Kennedy Park.

Eat & Drink

UNIQUE CUISINES & DRINKS

Satisfy Your Appetite

Take your taste buds on a tour around the world— you won't even need a passport!

The city's cuisine is a delectable fusion of European flavors and Americanized delights that will leave you craving for more. Indulge in fresh caught seafood or try a local favorite, the sinfully delicious Pastel de Nata— a caramelized custard puff that will melt in your mouth.

Ready to embark on a gastronomic journey?

Fall River has so many great foods and experiences to try, such as...

- Numerous waterfront dining options
- World-class, fine dining
- Fresh & authentic bakeries
- Cultural street foods
- ...And so much more!

Fun Foodie Fact

Fall River is home to the largest percentage of Portuguese Americans in the country!

Fall in Love with Fall River!

Plan Your Visit Today

Find all the information you need to plan an unforgettable trip to Fall River!

- Information and public facilities can be found at the Thomas Hudner Visitor's Center at Heritage State Park or at the Viva Maker Shop in Downtown Fall River on 333 S Main St.
- Most major attractions and public establishments are ADA compliant, but please call ahead or check for specific details.
- Explore your lodging options: from niche accommodations like Taylor's Pharmacy Guesthouse and the Lizzie Borden Bed and Breakfast to Holiday Inn Express North and nearby hotels, there are options for everyone.

To Travel is to Live

—Hans Christian Andersen

To learn more about current happenings
in Fall River, scan here.

